Land

Sheep Mountain Ranch presents an exclusive new offering of just seven 40+- acre tracts, ALL of which offer multiple potential building sites with unreal views. Each property actually borders national forest, opening to over 17,000 acres of untouched wilderness for exploration. A shared 385+- acre common area where Vee Bar horses roam will offer a private recreational pond that enhances the exclusive footprint, ensuring lasting conservation and low-density luxury. With dramatic rolling hills and native grasses, the Ranch is beaming with wildlife of all kinds. There will be NO more properties like this for sale in the future!

Improvements

This freshly developed ranch provides on-site power and private roads for seamless access to all parcels, thoughtfully designed to minimize environmental impact. Building sites are abundant-pick your favorite view- and ready for custom homes; imagine timber-frame masterpieces and modern mountain estates!

Recreation

Hike, mountain bike, or take a horseback ride directly from your property of choice into the mouth of Sheep Mountains National Forest land for premier hunting of mule deer, elk, and antelope during Wyoming's generous hunting seasons. Use the common area for non-motorized recreation and wildlife viewing. A central community pond offers serene spots for watching ducks and geese, or paddleboarding and kayaking in warmer months.

Region & Climate

The Sheep Mountain Ranch enjoys a refreshing high-mountain climate with mild summers, snowy winters, and low humidity throughout the year. Sitting at over 7,500 feet in elevation, the area experiences pleasantly warm days in the 70s during summer, with cool, comfortable nights perfect for stargazing. Winter brings a beautiful blanket of snow, ideal for skiing, snowshoeing, and other cold-weather activities. With four distinct seasons, plenty of sunshine, and crisp alpine air, the valley offers a true taste of mountain living year-round.

Location

The Sheep Mountain Ranch is in southeastern Wyoming, just 20 minutes west of Laramie. The town of Centennial—about 6 miles west—serves as a gateway to the Medicine Bow National Forest where many visit to hike, bike, hunt, camp, fish, and ski at the Snowy Range Ski Area. The Sheep Mountain Ranch sits across from the world famous Vee Bar Guest Ranch. Laramie offers University of Wyoming amenities, a regional airport, multiple grocery stores, and cultural gems to explore. Denver International Airport is 2.5 hours south, making this Ranch a prime escape from the hustle and bustle of the Front Range. As the first tracts in this exclusive offering, its forest-edge location promises a gateway to Wyoming's finest adventures. Secure yours before they're gone!
