Land

Lobo de Amalia Lodge and Ranch, located in Taos County, New Mexico dovetails into and backs up to the +/-80,000 acre Rio Castillo Cooperative Livestock Association (RCCLA) that was established in 1942 pledging "to continually promote the proper and thorough management of deer, elk and other wildlife and their habitat". Located in GMU 55, the +/-80,000 acre RCCLA is part of a trio of jewels that includes Vermejo Park and Valle Vidal.

The Spring-fed Creek and Land

Just above the Lodge is a spring-fed creek that runs year-round, supplies the lodge and nourishes the amazing 3/4 mile stand of aspens across the ranch. Hidden on the other side of the creek is your very own +/-40 acre food plot of native grasses complete with 3 MB Ranch King shooting towers and an MB Ranch King bow/ground blind. Bordered on 3 sides by the +/- 80,000 acres of the RCCLA, it's beyond private and creates your very own sanctuary within a ranch!

Improvements

RECENT HUNTING ENHANCEMENTS: Three MB Ranch King shooting towers and an MB Ranch King bow/ground blind have been added to the property, elevating an already distinguished Western hunting retreat. Strategically positioned along key big-game travel corridors, these purpose-built installations complement the ranch's natural terrain and provide established vantage points for pursuing big game.

Originally built to host hunting parties for the RCCLA, the Lodge has been meticulously renovated and modernized while preserving its rich sporting heritage. A magnificent fireplace spanning more than 10 feet anchors the gathering space, while a handcrafted dining table comfortably seats 14. Six bedrooms featuring 13 beds and three bathrooms can accommodate substantial hunting parties in comfort. The semi-commercial kitchen is suited to preparing memorable meals after a day afield, while the full-length front porch offers an inviting setting to recount the day's pursuits and enjoy the company of family and fellow sportsmen for generations to come.

Recreation

Hunting – The hunting on Lobo de Amalia Ranch is a result of meticulous land management in combination with an incredible trio of world renowned and managed ranch lands adjacent to, and nearby, this +/-70 acres. There are little to no comparisons in neighbors, such as the +/-80,000 acres of the Rio Costello Park, the +/-101,000 acres of Valle Vidal and the +/-558,000 acres of the Vermejo Park Ranch, but needless to say, Lobo de Amalia Lodge and Ranch is in very good company!

Bull elk to 300+ annually, landowner mule deer tags over-the-counter (150-185), bear, turkey and grouse.

Fishing – For $20 a day one can fish the adjacent Rio Costilla Park, including their private lakes and the gorgeous Costilla Creek. Nearby, Alpine lakes are stocked with brook and native cutthroat's.

Skiing – Double Black Diamond runs at Taos Ski Mountain (50 min.), Red River and Angel Fire for Beginner and Intermediate runs (40-60 min.)

Kayaking and Rafting – Rio Grand Gorge (50 min.)

ATV's, UTV's and Four-Wheeling - Trails (40 min.)

Hiking – Rio Costilla Park extensive trail system (10 min.)

General Operations

Rental Income and Cash Flow Potential

The Lodge was originally established to accommodate RCCLA guests visiting the property for fishing and hunting excursions. Today, it offers expanded potential for multiple income streams, building on its rich sporting heritage and unique recreational appeal.

Vacation Rental Potential – Previously operated as a successful short-term rental on VRBO and Airbnb, with strong five-star guest reviews and peak-season bookings for families, retreats, and hunting groups.

Group Retreats & Events – Offers potential to host family reunions, corporate retreats, weddings, and wellness gatherings, with ample space for groups and modern amenities.

Premier Hunting Lodging – Historically served as a sought-after outfitter base camp for guided hunts on numerous private ranches throughout the area, including RCCLA, presenting an opportunity to reestablish seasonal lodging revenue.

Turnkey Furnishings & Infrastructure – Fully renovated and furnished, Lobo de Amalia Lodge is equipped for future rental operations or personal enjoyment, with local housekeeping, maintenance, and caretaking services available.

History

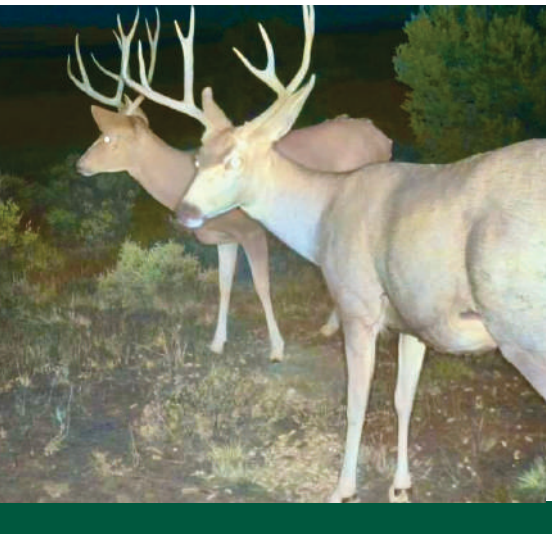

Truly distinguished hunting properties are seldom found, and even fewer offer the kind of experience that discerning Western sportsmen spend a lifetime pursuing. Lobo de Amalia Lodge and Ranch presents an opportunity to step into a world where exceptional hunting, privacy, and the finest traditions of the sporting life converge. For those who recognize a premier hunting property when they see one, this is a destination worth experiencing firsthand.

HAYDEN OUTDOORS®
REAL ESTATE

THE BRAND THAT SELLS THE Land®

Hayden Outdoors is a family-owned real estate company and brokerage with a background in the cattle and ranching business. In 1976, Leo Hayden founded the company as the Property Exchange, working with farms and ranches for sale near Hays, Kansas. The brokerage moved to Goodland, Kansas in 1981 and became Hayden Inc. In the late 1990's, Leo was joined by his two sons, Dax and Seth, to help grow the business in multiple states. In 2003, Hayden Outdoors was formed to represent sellers and buyers on farm, ranch, and recreational properties in the Great Plains and Rocky Mountains.

The team at Hayden Outdoors has grown and prospered to include over 200 brokers, agents, and an excellent full-time staff supporting the sale of rural land. Hayden Outdoors represents the finest farms, legacy properties, working ranches, hunting lands and recreational properties from coast to coast.

Over time, we have built our team to be composed of brokers and agents with experience and knowledge in their markets and an affinity to "Do what they say they will". Hayden Outdoors is about honesty and integrity with customers and a rich sense of land stewardship. We understand land, water, habitat, livestock, wildlife, minerals and what is necessary to maximize value for our clients. We truly love the great outdoors!

We are blessed to work with the owners and buyers of the farms, ranches and other fine recreational properties we represent, because it is still the diversity of owners over the years that make these places so special.

At Hayden Outdoors, we're proud to say that we only work with the best brokers and agents who are experienced farmers, ranchers & outdoor enthusiasts.
